

Health	Literacy	Eco-literacy	Leadership	Employment	Culinary Arts	Agriculture	Teen Mentors	Entrepreneurship	Community Engagement	Youth Philanthropy
--------	----------	--------------	------------	------------	---------------	-------------	--------------	------------------	----------------------	--------------------

Youth Programs

Side-by-Side partners teen mentors with youngsters in first through third grades to offer seasonal activities that build literacy skills and a connection to the natural world		•		•				•
Jumpstart is a two-week summer extension of our Side by Side program for young children in first through second grades to promote summer literacy and healthy life skill development in preparation for academic success		•		•				•
Next Steps is for youth in fourth through sixth grades with a focus on interactive, environmental education taught with the assistantship of teen mentors			•	•			•	•		•
Teen Mentor Training invites high school students to serve as mentors to children in first through sixth grade in our three children's programs (Side-by-Side, Jumpstart and Next Steps)				•				•		•
Food For Thought summer program trains youth (ages 13 – 19) from Chester and Montgomery Counties, PA, as they earn a stipend, in organic gardening and farming, cooking/nutrition, business and entrepreneurship, youth employment, philanthropy and community service, leadership and team building	•		•	•	•	•	•		•	•

Job Readiness Trainings

Green Career Pathway Trainings are after-school trainings in cooking/nutrition, urban agriculture and sustainability/eco-literacy education for youth ages 13-18 in Philadelphia	•		•	•	•	•	•
---	---	--	---	---	---	---	---	--	--	--

Internships

Green Career Pathways (Chester County) offers work readiness training and paid internships for eligible youth ages 16-24			•	•	•	•
Green Career Pathways (Philadelphia) provides two options for eligible youth ages 16-24 in Philadelphia to either attend work readiness trainings for placement in paid internships at socially responsible businesses or attend entrepreneurship trainings and receive a stipend for entrepreneurial projects			•	•	•	•	•		•	•

School-Based Programming

Artisan, service, and career school-based internships are for teens to learn from and work with local artisans, non-profits, and socially responsible business leaders				•	•	•			•	•
Activity days brings farm-to-table experiences to children and youth in elementary and middle school grades as part of their school day	•		•			•	•

Community Programs

Food For All addresses the challenges of poverty and increases access to fresh produce for the most vulnerable residents and stimulates community engagement among the hundreds of volunteers at businesses, schools, and civic organizations with whom Triskeles partners to install raised bed gardens and train volunteers to grow produce for local food pantries	•					•	•			•
Days of Service partners corporations and businesses with Triskeles programs to fulfill corporate social responsibility commitments, offering many volunteer opportunities for companies to support their employee's efforts to give back to the community in meaningful ways										•
Tempus Conference is a weekend long, annual conference for young entrepreneurs in high school and college				•					•	